

Works Cited

Ferber, Michael. "Religion, Philosophy, and Science." Romanticism: A Very Short

Introduction. Oxford. Oxford Press, 2010. Text.

Hawthorne, Nathaniel. The Scarlet Letter. New York City: Random House, 1850. Text.

Jordan, Victoria. "Living With Jim Crow." Newsweek Vol. 15. New York City: Harman, 2009.

Magazine.

Wormser, Richard. "Jim Crow Stories: U.S. in WWII (1941-1945)." PBS. 3 May, 2015. Web.

<www.pbs.org/wnet/jimcrow/stories_events_ww2.html>.

Short Stories, Articles, Books

Lastname, Firstname. "Title of Story/Chapter (if applicable)." Title of Book/Text. City of Publication: Publisher, Year of Publication. Medium of Publication.

Since your sources are articles from ebscohost, they will likely need to be formatted like the example above.

Electronic Resources

Lastname, Firstname. Title. Website Name. Date Accessed. Web. <URL>.

Start your Works Cited on a new page (click "insert" and "page break.") If you can't find one of these pieces of information, leave it out!